MORNING AGRICULTURE & FOOD

"Unexplained inflation": According to SAFE, "the continued and steep increase in food prices is mostly attributed to the heightened prices set by retailers and food producers, who have respectively raised their prices by +12% and +17% year-on-year." This "unexplained inflation", which translates to higher costs for consumers, is "particularly concerning", said the NGO.